

This simple example is presented to show how to code gradient descent from scratch (for learning purposes)

- In put data: profit vs population of city.

- Here we illustrate the search for the global minimum and the optimum slope for the linear regression. (different slopes for different iterations of the gradient descent algorithm)

- Best Fit Slop.

